OFFICE ORDER

Program Assessment & Quality Improvement Committee (PAQIC) is an in-house intra-department Committee chaired by the Head of the Department and comprising of senior teachers in the department who are UG and PG Program coordinators for NBA accreditation process. The most senior teacher amongst the NBA coordinators in the department shall also work as department's NAAC coordinator and shall be invited to the IQAC meetings to present the work/progress of the department, in this regard. The meetings of PAQIC shall be organized MINIMUM TWO times in a year, preferably prior to the University level IQAC meetings.

The Committee is expected to act as an interface between Board of Studies-BoS and Industry Advisory Board-IAB, in the Department, while reporting periodically to the University level IQAC, for overall "Teacher & Learner-Centric Quality" improvement in all facets of academic programs' implementation, in the department. The PAQIC shall have following mandates:

- To ensure implementation of the resolutions and recommendations of the Program-specific BoS and IAB, in the department, towards overall Quality Improvement in the 'Curriculum Review-Analysis-Design', and most importantly 'Content Delivery'.
- To ensure and monitor the execution of standard practices and the state-of-art in 'Teaching-Learning-Assessment-(T-L-A)', in the Academic year, semester-to-semester, based on the resolutions and recommendations the BoS/IAB, and feedback of teachers and learners on the T-L-A.
- To prepare for and offer the UG/PG programs in the Department for periodic assessment by NBA or NAAC, towards successful accreditation, by consistent upkeep and maintenance of relevant academic records, data, documents and evidence.
- To monitor, assess and compile the attainment of semester wise course outcomes, Programs outcomes, annually, with submission of gap analysis, periodically.
- To accumulate, compile and analyze all the relevant data and outcomes that enable successful participation of the department in national/global Ranking and Branding frameworks.
